AAUW GREATER WAYNE AREA BRANCH PUROSE

The purpose of this branch shall be to further AAUW’s mission to advance equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy and research.

President’s Message

Dorothy Quinn 973-728-9337

Filling in for Dorothy Quinn, Bea Kettlewood has submitted the following message:

AAUW-NJ Fall Retreat was held in Atlantic City on Sunday and Monday, October 20 and 21. Six members of AAUW-GWA attended. A variety of meetings were held with the main emphasis on pay equity and human trafficking. We shared that the topic of our January meeting will be Human Trafficking and that two of our members, Lorraine LaShell and Jeanne Michaud, work with the NJ Coalition Against Human Trafficking. The theme of the meeting of Branch Presidents was, “Filling Your Branch with Fresh Folks.” In response to the theme the GWA Board stated they had members from 30 years to 2 years of membership with a variety in between. Other presidents were impressed with the quality of the AAUW-GWA branch.

The next time the Greater Wayne branch meets will be at the Holiday Dinner at the Paris Inn on Sunday, December 8.

Program

Maryann Davidson 862-248-0195
Lorraine LaShell 973-696-8705

The January 15, 2014, program will inform our group about Human Trafficking, or modern day slavery. This is a rapidly growing criminal industry second only to drug dealing and equal in scope to arms dealing. Learn about Human Trafficking in our area and what we can do to combat this terrible crime. Please plan on joining us.

Art Interest Group

Bea Kettlewood 973-835-2253

On Wednesday, November 6, at 45 Wilrue we will observe the gradual change in style from Late Medieval to Early Renaissance with even church artists shifting their style: Fra Angelico and Fra Fillipi Lippo. Other artists, whom you may assume are Italian are: Sassetta, Uccello, Della Francesca, Bellini, Donatello, Brunelleshi and more from the fifteenth century. A year-end test question will be: What is Massaccio’s real name? Study the answer: Tommaso di ser Giovanni di Simone Guidid (1401-c. 1428). He is considered by many historians, to be the greatest of Early Renaissance with his achievements in only 27 years.

Games Night

Dot Anton 973-694-4550

TGIF's (Thank Goodness It's Friday) next Games Night will be November 15 at Joan Hahn's. We begin at 7:30 pm and play games until 10, at which time we have light refreshments.

There will be no December Games Night

Games Night is open to all members. Please call the hostess at least 3 days in advance to let her know you are coming.

Social Action Committee

Cathy Matich 862-228-6226
Marlys Huss 973-838-7051
Gloria McCormick 973-835-1875

Our thanks to Bea Kettlewood for helping Marlys deliver school supplies collected at the summer social to Strengthen Our Sisters. The delivery included 46 notebooks, 8 book bags, 15 boxes of crayons and markers, 23 packages of pens and pencils and a variety of book covers, glue and glue sticks, folders, scissors, etc. A separate delivery was made to Grandma's Place which included 11 notebooks, 2 book bags, crayons, pencils, etc.

Thanks also to Dot McMahon for helping Gloria deliver five bags of clothing and personal care items to Strengthen Our Sisters.

Let's all keep up the giving spirit as we near the holiday season. SAC plans once again to do our yearly collection of gifts for the needy children from Strengthen Our Sisters at our holiday luncheon. (Donating is strictly on a voluntary basis.) We will provide details in a communication closer to the time when we have a better idea of what any specific need might be. Please mark your calendars to provide a little "extra" shopping prior to the luncheon!

In the meantime, if anyone is aware of someone who could use our help, please contact us. We do have some funds at our disposal.

Public Policy

Janice Rutherford

973-981-9255

The AAUW Two Minute Activist on the AAUW has resources to make your voice heard regarding the latest issues. In addition to the Take Action link to contact your elected officials, there is also a very helpful guide for writing letters to the editor. A letter to the editor can be used to correct and clarify facts in a previous news story, oppose or support the actions of an elected official or agency, direct attention to a problem, spur news editors to cover an issue that is being overlooked, or urge readers to support your cause. AAUW policy staff is available to help proof your letter if requested via advocacy@aauw.org. Take Action—let your voice be heard!

Saturday Lunch Bunch—November 9

Please mark your calendars and reserve your seat at the next Lunch Bunch on Saturday, November 9 at 12:15 pm. We will gather at Opa Restaurant, a Mediterranean-Greek restaurant on Berdan Ave. in Wayne across the street from Wayne Hills Mall. We think you will enjoy Opa with its tasty soups, salads, Mediterranean style sandwiches and assorted platters.

For your November reservation please phone Judy Shivy by Friday, November 8. Please invite friends, neighbors, colleagues and newer branch members to this Saturday lunch which should be especially convenient for women who are either busy or working during the week.

Lunch Bunch will pause in December. For your advance planning, please note that the first lunch bunch in the New Year will be held on January 10, 2014 at Gilly's Restaurant in Pompton Plains.
